NEWS OF OUR PEOPLE

Community Christmas Cantata

Imagine That Christmas Pageant!

Dear Singers, Players, Readers, & Behind-the-Scenes-We-Couldn't-Do-It-Without-You Supporters,

Leading you on this journey to Bethlehem every December is beyond humbling. Your forbearance, grace, grit, and trust get me through. Together, we are a healing presence in our little corner of the universe. May it be so for many years to come!

This season, my wish for you is that you find Peace, experience Hope, know Joy, and share Love.

Deeply,
Dona

Our after-school kids from the Imagine That program did a GREAT job telling us the Christmas story on Thursday, Dec. 18. So many smiles, so much love and support, and absolutely adorable!

Mary Hosford's Women's Fellowship Annual Christmas Dinner

Women's Fellowship Ends
a Great Year
with a Christmas Celebration

Women's Fellowship as well as other ladies from UCC gathered at The Grove Restaurant on December 4th for a fun Christmas celebration. Sheila led the opening prayer.

Suzanne bestowed Gratitude Awards – those given from the heart – no certificates, plaques or trophies needed!

Shannon King (said Suzanne) makes me look like a better chairperson than I am. She calls every week to check on events, flyers, quilt tickets and notices in the bulletin and Carillon, making sure that our events don't overlap and then gets them on the church calendar. What would we do without her??

Suzanne Norton (says article author, Bonnie Cady) is an organized leader with lots of attention to detail. She truly cares about each and every member of UCC as well as her duties as our Women's Fellowship leader!

Karen Schaper is our Ministry of Caring – When Karen delivers her muffins and cookies from her and Bill (funny we didn't know Bill was an accomplished baker!

😊), it says to the recipient, "We Care!" Birthdays, celebrations, losses, etc., they know someone is thinking of them and that they care.

Kathy May gets the Quilting for Scholarship award. Every year she makes a fabulous quilt that keeps our scholarship fund growing. What a talented lady! Kathy says she has faith that our youth attendance will grow. What a great goal!!

Sharon Hawley is our Ministry on Wheels lady. She has spent many, many years shopping for coffee hour, dinners and memorial luncheon supplies. It's like having our own private Amazon!! Just give her the list and it arrives!

Vanessa Adams – our Jack of all Trades – Far Cry, Worship Music, tech booth, Fall Fest, Imagine That Kids Program and so much more, including putting together a last-minute Sunday service when needed.

Carol Abel and Karen Czesak – Have spent many years working with Christian Education and Women's Fellowship. Currently with outreach ministry, they are sending cards to church members for celebrations of any kind and families that are grieving a loss. This service is greatly needed and appreciated!!

Sheila Vrenna – a very special lady that wears so many hats! Outreach ministry is such a large part of our church activities and as chair, Sheila keeps us busy both inside the church and out in the community. Imagine That, Rummage Sale, Food Pantry, Rides to appointments and community dinners keep her running! Phew!!!

Ginger Comstock and Dona Roll – As busy as these two ladies are involved with community activities, they still find time to treat us to a Birthday Sunday every month! This is so appreciated by Women's Fellowship as well as our ice cream addicts! Music is a huge priority for them as well!!

Diane Szpak– Gets a well-deserved Hospitality Award. Always the first to greet new people, her long-time care of Paul Sanio and the beautiful memorial service show what Christian love looks like. She is a hug specialist!

Edie Holmes– Our very own pastry chef who is always willing to bake a beautiful and delicious cake for any occasion, even on short notice. Our bake sales have become legendary because of Edie's pies. (We fight over them!) She is also always willing to sign up and work any event and she makes it fun!!

Jo Sixt – The worker bee award describes her!! She always says, "what can I do to help" and is willing to do whatever it takes to make the event special. She is dedicated to Tuesday morning coffee hour/ prayer time and community dinners.

Liz Lowth – Has spent many years collaborating with Women's Fellowship at dozens of events. Currently recovering from health issues, she will soon be up and running full steam!

Shirley Kriedeman - Shirley has been a dedicated member of Women's Fellowship and Workers Union for many years. She is kind enough to set the dining room tables for our monthly community dinners, and it always looks great! Her brownies are famous!

Helen Boling – Helen's artistic talents were very clear when she set up the Imagine That Art Expo! Wow! It was beautiful! As co-chair of Women's Fellowship she is a great partner with me (Suzanne) as we bounce ideas back and forth to produce plans.

Bonnie Cady (added by Shannon 😊) - Bonnie is just beautiful inside and out! She is always ready to help and lend a hand! Bonnie is an amazing photographer and writer! We are blessed to have her in our church family!

So, there you have it folks! Our ladies have lots of talent and enthusiasm for every project we do. This past year we had a chili cookoff, Rummage Sale, Art Expo for Imagine That, Annual Picnic at Kathy May's, Paul Sanio's Memorial Service, Antique Arts weekend, Fall Festival, quilt sale, and another bake sale. Not too bad for a bunch of "Senior" ladies!! 😊 Best of all, we love each other and everything we do. It's not work when done with love!

In Memoriam

We are deeply grateful for the example William Kerstetter showed during his life and for the profound influence he had on his grandson, Pastor Josh Bower. Mr. Kerstetter passed away peacefully at his home in Pennsylvania on December 12, and we extend our sympathy to his family on the loss of their husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, great-great-grandfather, and brother.

While his family members were watching online, Pastor gave a heartfelt tribute to his Pappy during the December 7 worship service. He later officiated at his Pappy's memorial service on January 10 at the Rote United Methodist Church.

Pastor wrote the following on his Facebook page on December 15: "My Pappy was the most kind-hearted man I have ever met. He helped anyone in need and never expected anything in return. He cherished his family and every person he met became an instant friend. I am blessed to have had this wonderful man as my grandpa for 31 years and his impact on my life cannot be overstated. His memory will be a blessing to me and all who knew him until we meet again."

Memorials may be sent to his church, of which he was a longtime trustee and very active member, or to the local fire department, of which he was a founding member: Rote United Methodist Church, 102 Beagle Road, Mill Hall, PA 17751 or to the Lamar Township Vol. Fire Company, 91 Firehouse Road, Mill Hall, PA 17751.

DOWNTOWN COMMERCIAL DISTRICT

The New York State Office of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation recently notified us that our church and annex buildings are among those that are being nominated to become part of a Downtown Commercial Historic District. Being part of such a district offers some protection from the effects of federal and/or state sponsored or assisted projects, and makes properties eligible for state preservation grants. Listed properties are also eligible for certain tax credits, but that will not pertain to us, since the church is tax-exempt.

A meeting of eligible property owners is scheduled for February 2 at the Arcade Village Office to learn more about the proposed district. Property owners who object to having their property listed have to do so before the NYS Board for Historic Preservation meets to consider the district on March 12. Further information is available from the Church Historian, Jeff Mason.

Looking Back on Christmas 2025...

This was submitted by Karen Czesak, taken from a Facebook group titled, "The Grandparent's Club."

Christmas changes after 50 years...

Not because it loses its shine—but because you finally see where it was shining all along.

When I was younger,
I thought Christmas lived in the doing.
The lists.
The errands.
The rushing from one moment to the next.

I thought the magic depended on how full the house was,
how loud the morning felt,
how much we packed
into a single day.

I didn't know then that magic gets quieter with age.

Now it shows up
before anyone else wakes.
In the soft glow of the tree
reflecting years I've lived.
In the silence that isn't empty—
just full of remembering.

After 50, Christmas carries layers.
Each ornament is a chapter.
Each tradition remembers who started it
and who kept it going.
Each song brings back a version of myself
I didn't know I'd miss.

You start noticing
how many Christmases are behind you,
and how precious the ones ahead have become.

I didn't understand before how quickly children grow into adults, how parents turn into memories,
how a year slips past without asking permission.

But here I am now—
moving slower,
listening more,
holding tighter.

Because Christmas after 50
isn't measured in excitement.
It's measured in gratitude.

It's lingering in hugs.
It's saying the prayer twice.
It's letting the dishes wait so the moment doesn't have to.

It's realizing the gifts that mattered most were never wrapped.
They were the voices at the table.
The people who came back home.
The ones who are no longer here—
but still somehow present.

And maybe that's the gift of growing older.
You stop trying to recreate the past and start honoring it.
You stop chasing the feeling and start recognizing the blessing.

So here's to Christmas after 50—
where joy is softer,
faith is steadier,
love is deeper,
and meaning feels close enough to touch.

And if you're here reading this,
may you know this truth:
the same God who carried you through every December before is still with you now.

Still faithful.
Still present.
Still making all things sacred—even the quiet ones.

Looking Ahead to 2026...

This was submitted by Karen Czesak, taken from a Facebook group titled, "The Grandparent's Club."

This next year,
I'm choosing joy.
Not because life suddenly became lighter, or because every unanswered prayer found its ending—
but because I've learned what it costs to carry heaviness longer than necessary.

I've learned that sorrow can take up residence
if you let it.
That grief doesn't always announce itself loudly—
sometimes it slips in quietly and settles into the ordinary days.

So this year,
I'm choosing joy on purpose.

I'm choosing it in the mornings when my body reminds me of all the years I've lived.
In the mirrors that tell the truth about time.
In the memories that ache and bless me all at once.

I'm choosing joy in the small, overlooked moments—
coffee growing cold on the counter, laughter drifting in from another room,
the sound of someone I love just being here.

I'm choosing joy without waiting for life to make sense first.

Because I know now—waiting for perfect is how joy gets postponed until it's almost forgotten.

This next year,
I'm choosing joy even when the house is quiet.
Even when the calendar is full and my heart still feels a little empty.
Even when I miss people
I can't call anymore.

I'm choosing joy that coexists with sadness.
Joy that doesn't deny the hard things,
but refuses to let them have the final word.

I've carried enough "what ifs."
Enough "if onlys."
Enough seasons where surviving was mistaken for living.

This year,
I'm living.

I'm choosing joy in slowing down.
In saying no without guilt.
In loving deeply without keeping score.
In being present instead of productive.

I'm choosing joy that doesn't need permission or approval or explanation.

Joy that looks like peace.
Joy that sounds like gratitude.
Joy that feels like finally exhaling
after holding my breath for years.

I don't know everything this next year will bring.
I don't know what it will take or what it will ask of me.

But I know who I am now.

And that's someone who chooses joy—
not because life is easy,
but because life is precious.

This next year,
I'm choosing joy.

And I'm not waiting another season to begin.

In Memoriam

CARLTON W. TALBOT II

We learned recently that Carlton W. Talbot II passed away peacefully at his home in Bridgton, Maine, on December 30, 2024 at the age of 87. He came to our church as the interim pastor in 1983. After being called as our pastor, he and Jane moved into the parsonage on Park Street and remained here until they returned to Massachusetts in 1990. Carl's parents, Carlton and Cora Talbot, had been longtime friends of the late Gordon and Leah Caner of Arcade. They moved here from Batavia after their son became pastor and were active in the life of our church.

During his time here, Carl was active in the Pioneer Association of Churches, the Arcade Lions Club and the Arcade Area Chamber of Commerce, and was heavily involved with the observance of our church's 175th anniversary in 1988. Carl organized and led multiple retreats for our church family at Dunkirk Camp and Conference Center and at Camp Duffield. It was at the 1989 retreat when Rev. Dr. William Briggs, our State Conference Minister at the time, spoke about the new health and nutrition project that was starting in the remote mountains of Honduras. There was a major need for a medical doctor to help with the project. It was at this retreat that Dr. Gordon Comstock answered the call and our 36-year involvement with NY/HELP Honduras had its beginning.

After leaving the ministry, Carl worked as the manager of the Songo River Queen excursion boat in Naples, Maine. At the time of his passing in 2024, he was survived by his wife, Jane; his three children, Andrew, Jill and Jeffrey; his stepson, Matthew; his sister, Claudia; five grandchildren; and one great-granddaughter. There were no memorial services. His obituary can be found at hallfuneralhome.net in Casco, Maine.

ENDOWMENT COMMITTEE NEWS

The Endowment Committee held two meetings in November. At the first meeting, we re-elected our officers for 2025-26: Jeff Mason as chair and Randy Lutz as treasurer. We also reviewed the dollar amounts that were available for disbursement between then and September 30, 2026. At our second meeting, we voted to give $1,000 to the Pastor's Discretionary Fund, to be used to assist a family within our church family with expenses related to a serious medical issue, as needed. We also voted to provide $500 to the Village of Arcade to assist customers who are having trouble paying their electric bills during the winter heating season.

COUNCIL MEETING – January 18, 2026

In attendance: Bill Schaper, Rich Vogt, Dirk Norwich, Jay May, Vanessa Adams, Kim Common, Bonnie Cady, Amy Tillinghast, Pastor Josh Bower, Kathy May (subbing for Shannon)

Opening Devotional: Bill Schaper – “The Privilege of Serving Your Church”

Devotions for March 26 meeting: Rich Vogt

Pastor's Report:

Pastor Josh reported a very busy but nice Christmas Season. There was nearly twice the need for help during this Christmas Season and because of this the Discretionary Fund has taken a hit and needs to be watched. There have already been 4-5 requests for help since January 1. The Imagine That program continues to flourish and their Christmas program was a highlight in December. The event was well attended by the children's family members and UCC church family. Amy Tillinghast mentioned that she didn't feel connected to the Imagine That program due to the fact that she is working when they meet and unable to participate. She wondered if more pictures could be run onscreen during Sunday church service. Vanessa Adams suggested maybe this could be done during offering time. Bonnie Cady volunteered to be responsible for getting pictures to Vanessa who will include them onscreen.

Old/Continuing Business:

Church Cameras - Wiring for the cameras is complete and installation of the cameras will take place soon.

Open and Affirming – Final vote on becoming an Open and Affirming church will come soon.

New Business:

The church roof continues to lose shingles with all the wind events that have happened this year and this should be addressed sooner rather than later. Bill Schaper said we have been keeping up with repairs every year at a cost of $2,000-$3,000 a year, but last year it was not addressed. Jay May questioned if there were grants from UCC Conference for repairs? Vanessa will check with Western Area UCC and Pastor Josh will send some national UCC links to Jay for him to investigate.

Pastor Josh reported he had received a call from Emily Hung from NYS Clean Energy Hub regarding space to host a Health and Housing Resource Fair on April 11. The purpose is to provide resource information for those in need of help. After discussion, all agreed it would be a great idea to host. Logistics of who would be responsible for overseeing this event will be discussed later.

Church sign – After updating the programming software for the sign, we have not been able to upload new information to the sign. Bill Schaper reported he is not receiving any response from the company that sold us the sign, and we need to go in a different direction to solve this problem. He would like to speak with the people at Utz Tire as they have the same sign and have been able to get around this issue. Jay May volunteered to speak with Utz as he is there several times per week anyway.

Mtg. adjourned: 11:30am. Next Mtg.: March 26, 2026
